The New York City office of global real estate brand Professionecasa Prestige International recently hosted an exclusive preview of Moravia, South of Fifth for local real estate professionals at Cipriani Wall Street.

Guests viewed a spectacular presentation of the luxury hotel-style residences through photos and floor plans, while enjoying cocktails and canapés.

Moravia, South of Fifth is Miami's newest residential address, located just steps from the famed-Nikki Beach and includes valet parking, a private spa, beach-front views and Apple-aided technology. The property was developed and designed by the Moravia Group and its in-house design team Moravia Lab, Monte-Carlo.
